

Come to the Indian Rocks Historical Museum's Spring Potluck Luncheon

Join us for our Spring Potluck Luncheon on Saturday, March 28 for fabulous food and a fun program! Lunch at noon, followed by our speaker at 1 p.m.

Recalling the Local Nightlife Scene ~1970's and beyond~

Local storyteller Mike Shea will be joining us for a conversation about his colorful past experiences as a restaurant/bar worker along Gulf Blvd.

Mike will share memories and show exhibits from some of the popular nightlife haunts of Indian Rocks and nearby areas from days gone by.

Mike Shea, creator of
"Ghosts of Indian Rocks Beach"
Facebook page

The Indian Rocks Historical Society's luncheons always feature a variety of favorites, whether homemade or ready-made. Just bring a dish to share. Beverages, plates and utensils are provided.

Saturday, March 28, 2026, 12 noon

Indian Rocks Historical Museum
203 4th Avenue across from Post Office
Web: www.IRBmuseum.com

Potluck luncheon - bring a dish to share

All Historical Society programs are free and open to the public